

YEARLY★KOS convention

Benefit for the 2007 YearlyKos Convention

With Special Guests
Senator Russ Feingold
Representative Brad Miller
Representative John Hall
Representative Jerry McNerney
Gina Cooper, Executive Director, YearlyKos Convention

Join activists, organizers and on-lookers, as we drink, laugh and carouse liberally to celebrate the blogging community and prepare for the 2007 YearlyKos Convention

Free food, cheap drinks (donation requested), lively conversation & progressive camaraderie!

Tuesday, April 17th
6:30 p.m. – 9:30 p.m.
The Mott House
corner of Maryland Ave NE and Constitution Metro accessible from Union Station (Red Line)

$35 Minimum Donation
Join the host committee (in formation) with a $100 pledge

Register for this event at <http://www.yearlykosconvention.org/node/89>

This is a grassroots event and only modest donations are solicited to attend, as reflected above. The YearlyKos Convention also seeks sponsorship for our convention in Chicago on August 2 - 5, if interested please contact Linda Lee at Linda@yearlykosconvention For this 4/17 event the YearlyKos Convention and elected officials are soliciting maximum donations of up to $2,300 from an individual or up to $5,000 from a multi-candidate committee. In addition, for this 4/17 event we are not soliciting funds from corporations, national banks or labor unions."

All proceeds benefit Bloggerpower.org, a 501(c) 4 organization

www.yearlykosconvention.org

The YearlyKos Convention is an annual gathering of the Netroots community, the US-based (but globally focused and inclusive) non-partisan grassroots political community that uses the Internet and blogs as primary tools for expressing viewpoints, building consensus, acting to change the status quo and mobilizing and informing each other and the world about current events, grassroots actions, networks, policy and more.